Governor Robinson and family had taken passage on the Star of the West at Lexington. While on on the their way hither, Gov. Robinson was waited upon by the citizens, and he was notified that they should dethe tien him to explain on the ground that he was fleeing from the territory to avoid an arrest on an indictment for treason, which had been found against him by the Grand Jury of the U. S. District Court.

Mr. Robinson replied to them, that he had been informed by one of the jury that an attempt had been made to find a true bill against him, but that it had This explanation did not satisfy the Commitlet, and they insisted that he should remain. Mr. Robinson finally consented on the persuasion of Mr. Parkinson, captain of the boat, and Mr. Bernard, of Rallimore. The Committee agreed to send a messenger to Kansas to ascertain if the indictment had senger found against the Governor; if not, all the exneed to the detention should be paid by the Committee, which consisted of Gen. Shields, Mr. Sawyer and a number of the most respectable citizens. All accounts standing over three months, interest will be b. for stall fed. SHEEP are also in demand, and would Coffee-In this article there has been nothing done except in the retail way. There is a fair stock of most descriptions on market, with a limited demand. Our quotations in table are for store rates, according to quantity and Corron-The receipts since our last review have been exceedingly light, and in consequence the market has ruled inactive. Quotations are about the same as on this day week. A few small parcels have changed hands at 84 cents for inferior, 101 cents for strict middling, and 101 cents for good middling. CORN MEAL-Remains without change in price, and is in fair stock. No sales during the week except in the small way at 75 cents w bushel. EMPTY BARRELS-In Spirits Turpentine barrels we have o change to notice. There has been a moderate enquiry from buyers, and we note sales of several parcels second hand nes at $1 60 each. 90 days; -fair supply in first hands. FEATHERS - Remain in full supply, and are dull of sale. We quote from store at 40 @ 45 cents # 1b., as in quantity and quality. FISH-The market is very poorly supplied with all descriptions. No Mullets in store, and we erase quotations.

ive, and we have barely anything to report; in fact there has been noting done except in the retail way. The receipts continue quite light, and the supply of superfine on market has been considerably reduced; - little or no family here, and we notice some enquiry. The lower grades are in moderate stock, and decidedly dull of sale. We quote at $5 75 for cross, $6 25 for fine, $7 @ 7 25 for superfine, $7 50 $7 75 $6 bbl. for family, according to quantity. GRAIN-In CORN we have no change to notice in prices. There is very little demand at present, and the market is fully supplied. Received on Saturday last from Hyde county two cargoes, (3,310 bushels,) which were taken at 58 cents bushel. --- OATS-Are in moderate stock, and demand limited; no sales except in the retail way. A lot of 574 bushels received this week, and gone into store. See table for last sale from vessel.—Pras—Cow remain as last reported. Very few coming in, and we hear of no sales ex-dean in first hands, and market dull; no change, however, in price. We quote at 4 @ 44 cents & lb., as in quantity.

No demand for rough.— WHEAT—We notice the sale on Friday last of 200 bushels N. C. at $1 373 & bushel for mixed.—WHITE BEANS-None received, and a fair demand exists; would sell at $1 75 @ $2 $ bushel.

the past week. The supply of Eastern has become very small, and a good article would sell quick; last sale was at $1.30. Northern is in moderate stock, and rather dull;— 164 bales received and sold at 925 cents @ 100 fbs., 60 days. LIME-Appears to be in limited demand, and stock moderate. See table for store rates. A cargo of 800 casks received since last review, which has been stored. LIQUORS-No change in prices. See table for store rates.

as in quantity and quality.

LUMBER-River-The market rules quite dull, with very ittle enquiry. Several rafts on market unsold; $6 50 is the best offer made for wide boards;—a small parcel flooring Molasses-No receipts of this article for several week's past, and consequently the supply of Cuba has been materially reduced; none in first hands. A cargo is, however, daily looked for. See table for store rates.

PEA NUTS-No sales. We quote at $1 40 @ $1 50 78 bushel, as in quality. Potaroes-Little or no demand for Irish, and a fair stock on market. Small sales at auction and from store at 70 cents @ $1 25 @ bbl.

Provisions-For N. C. cured Bacon there has been but a light cemand throughout the week, and the supply in first hands is fully fair. We notice sales from store of only small parcels at 12½ cents for hog round, and 13 @ 13½ cents $ 1b. for hams, as in quality. See table for quotations of sides and shoulders. The stock of Western cured is rather small, and prices have an upward tendency. Two or three parcels received since our last, which have gone into store, and are held at highest figures. See table. ___LARD-With small receipts of N. C. make the market has become almost bare. and we notice a fair demand from grocers. We quote small sales at 12 @ 12½ cents in bbls, and 12½ @ 13 cents $\mathbb{B}$ b. in kegs. Western is also in light supply, and sells from store at 12 @ 12; cents # 16., as in quantity.——PORK—For Northern Mess we reduce our highest quotation a shade, and note sales from store during the week at $18 50 @ $20 $2 bbl., according to weight and quantity; fair supply on mar-ket.—BUTTER—Northern is in fair stock, and sells slowly at 24 @ 26 cents # lb., as in quality. — Cheese—Is in light stock, and very little of good quality on market; sells rom store at 10 @ 12 cents # 1b. Salt-Very little doing in either quality. A lot of 500 ack Liverpool ground received coastwise on Monday and sold at $1 05 P sack, 90 days. See table for store rates of SHINGLES-For Common there has been a fair demand luring the past week, and we notice sales of about 500,000 at $2 50 W M. Contract are in good enquiry, and very few oming in ;-sales at $5 50 @ $6 P M., as in quality. STAVES AND HEADING-No receipts of Staves for some me past, and consequently we have no sales to report ;quotations merely nominal. A lot of Ash Heading (8,000 ieces) received this week, and sold at $13 W M., inspection TIMBER-The recent rise in the river has caused parcels o arrive rather more freely for the past week. There is ery little demand from millers, and the market is exceedngly duil. We note sales of some 15@ 16 rafts at figures ranging within quotations. See table. FREIGHTS-The large number of vessels that have arrived during the past week, together with small receipts of country produce, has created considerable dullness in the market, and we reduce our figures a shade to New York and Boston Rates to Philadelphia remain about the same. See table.

CHARLESTON, May 13 .- Cotton-The Cotton market may be said to have been brought to a stand to-day, so little was done in the article. Holders were unwilling to submit to the decline of je, reported in our previous issue, and hence the stagnation. Some 400 bales only changed hands, at extremes ranging from 10 to 114c. Some 124 hhds. of Museovado Sugar were sold at auction at prices ranging from 71 to 71; and 50 hhds. Cuba Molasses brought 31c. 2 gallon.— There was an arrival on Monday of 149 hhds. and 2 bbls Cuba description, which were sold prior to arrival at 29c and a cargo in a state of transitu was subsequently bought at 31c. a gallon.
